GENERAL ASSEMBLY DRAWING TO CLOSE

Calendar in Both Bodies Reported in Good Shape

NO NIGHT SESSIONS

House of Delegates Has Clear Docket and Senate Confronts Appropriation's Measure This Week.

Richmond, March 1.—With the 1920 session of the General Assembly rapidly drawing to a close, the Senate and House today will start the final two weeks with the calendar in the best shape in recent years. So well has the lower branch cleaned up its work that it is possible that no night sessions will be necessary until the last few days, if then.

The Senate, however, has a harder program to face through its delay in taking up the budget bill last week. The delay came through the illness of Senator Garrett, of Henry, chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, and the hard fight over the House bill for the abolition of the Department of Prohibition in 1922.

The budget bill, under an agreement reached Friday, will come up for final action on Tuesday. The House bill with its amendments, will be substituted for the Senate bill in order to speed up its passage. Efforts will be made to dispose of the budget in two days, in order that any conflicting amendments can be sent to the House and an agreement reached before the end of the week.

Rumors that the Governor will veto all salary raises not recommended by the joint committee of the Senate and House have been floating around, but are not given serious consideration. The bill as passed by the House is considerably over the estimate of the budget commission, but has not reached the maximum of the State's financial resources.

Much interest attaches to the action of the Senate on the appropriation for the Department of Prohibition. The House cut the committee recommendation in half, making an allowance of $25,000 a year for the two years the department will be in existence. This amount is considered entirely inadequate by some to carry out the enforcement of the prohibition law. The margin by which the Oliver substitute to abolish the department in 1921 was defeated is taken as an indication that the prohibition forces in the Senate can rally sufficient votes to materially increase the appropriation and send that part to the budget bill back to conference.

Second to the budget bill in interest is the caucus to be held Thursday night for the selection of a prohibition commissioner. Friends of the candidates have been quietly lining up their forces for several weeks, and until one or the other is practically sure of his ground, no demand for a caucus will be made. The caucus must be held, however, before the General Assembly adjourns in two weeks.

Harry B. Smith, of Culpeper, a former member of the House of Delegates, looms up as the strongest opponent of Dr. J. Sidney Peters, the incumbent. William Bullitt Fitzhugh however, has many friends, and has made an energetic campaign. Friends of Dr. Peters have not been idle, although feeling that two opponents make sailing for them much easier.

VETOED SALE OF SHIPS

Rome, March 1.—The Idea Nazionale declares that Italy had purchased eighteen large steamers from the United States, but that President Wilson vetoed the consignment of the vessels to this country.

MISSION OPENS

Large Congregation Attend Opening Service at St. Mary's Yesterday—To Last Two Weeks

A large congregation attended the opening service of the mission at the 11 o'clock mass at St. Mary's Catholic Church yesterday morning when the sermon was preached by Rev. John Gipprich, S. J., South Norwalk, Conn., and the evening sermon was preached by Rev. Patrick H. McHugh, S. J., South Norwalk, Conn.

The evening services this week will be for women, although the other service will be for both men and women.

Hours for the services announced yesterday follow: Masses and short instruction 5:30 a. m., and 7:30 a. m., and 9 a. m., and evening service and sermon at 8 p. m. Children's mission every afternoon at 3:15 o'clock.

TELEPHONE REPORT

Summary of A. T and T. Company For Year.

That the Bell System has passed through the strenuous period of war conditions with its plant, management and finances intact and is in a healthy condition to undertake its post-war responsibilities with a minimum of delay, is clearly shown by the annual report of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company.

H. B. Thayer, president of the company, gives an interesting history of the details and results of the year's operation not only of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company but of the whole Bell system. The System, although made up of many separate corporate entities, operates as one organization and enjoys the benefits of one organization—unity of purpose, standardization of material and methods, a single manufacturing, purchasing and supply department and a uniform policy. It is shown that there are advantages both to the stockholders and to the public in efficiency and economy of operation in addition to the insurance value resulting from the national scope of the utility.

For the American Telephone and Telegraph Company the net earnings of the year were over $60,000,000. In round figures, the interest charges were $15,000,000, the dividends $35,000,000 and the resulting balance $9,000,000, of which $5,000,000 was appropriated to Reserve for Contingencies and $4,000,000 added to Surplus. The company and its predecessors have paid dividends to the public at the rate of at least $7.50 per share each year for the past 38 years, and during the past 13 years the rate has been uniformly $8.00 per share. The number of shareholders in the American Telephone and Telegraph Company was on December 31st 120,460 an increase of 8,000 during the year. To this number should be added some 9,000 employees of the Bell System who are paying for stock out of their wages. More than 19,000 employees have already paid in full for their stock and are stockholders of record. There are more women stockholders than men.

20,000,000 THIRSTY

Washington, March 1.—Declaring that 20,000,000 persons in the United States are violating the prohibition law and that "the whole world is laughing at us." Representative Fred A. Britten, of Illinois, announced a new attack on the Volstead prohibition enforcement act.

Mr. Britten will introduce a bill permitting States to decide for themselves the legal alcoholic content of beer and wines. He considers the Volstead act unconstitutional.

TO OBSERVE NEW LAWS

Commissioner RoPer Issues Instructions Calling for Cessation of Raids Without Warrants

Washington, March 1.—Uncle Sam's army of "rum raiders" was given general orders today, which in effect directs them to observe strictly the provisions of the Fourth Amendment of the Federal Constitution, which shields private citizens against unlawful search and seizures.

Hereafter there are to be no raids unless properly drawn warrants have been issued by courts for suspected individuals.

DEFINES PLUMB PLAN OF OWNERSHIP

Prof. W. E. Kenneay Says it is Constructive and Not Destructive

PREDICTS ITS ADOPTION

Says There is Something Wrong With Present Industrial System—Several Join Plumb Club.

The Plumb Plan of government ownership of railroad is constructive and not destructive was the statement made by Prof. Walter E. Kennedy of Washington, who addressed a mass meeting of railroad men yesterday afternoon in the Richmond theater on that subject.

The speaker declared that the measure received a temporary setback but added that it eventually will be adopted.

That something is wrong with the present industrial system the speaker said is admitted by all. Property rights he asserted are all right when they do not interfere with human rights and he quoted the late Col Theodore Roosevelt on this.

Prof. Kennedy told his hearers that the railroad problem is by no means settled with the return of the roads to private ownership. He went into details regarding the Plumb Plan which among other things provides a bonus he said for the employees and fifty per cent of the net receipts to go to the government.

The speaker was introduced by Amos Howard of this city. At the conclusion of the meeting a number of those present joined the Plumb Club paying the annual dues of $1 each for membership which also entitled them to a paper devoted to the interests of labor.

ALLIES SEND NEW NOTE

London, March 1.—The Daily Telegraph reported today that the allies have despatched a supplementary note to President Wilson on the Adriatic situation.

The Manchester Guardian warmly praised the stand of President Wilson in its comment today. It said: "If President Wilson is suffering from any malady of political judgment, will not some American bacteriologist convey to us a few germs that we may inoculate our own European premiers? It is we who should be the first to raise our voices against the proposed settlement that expressed the very spirit we went to war to defeat"

EUROPE'S LOSS OF NERVE

Bishops Burt and Shepard, O. M. E Church, Return From Tour of Continent

(New York March 1.—The peoples of Europe have "lost their nerve" through the disorganization of their political, industrial and religious governments and probably will not recover equilibrium and strength until the United States has a well defined foreign policy through which to aid them in the opinion of Bishop William Burt, of the Methodist Episcopal area of Buffalo, N. Y., and Bishop William Shepard, of Wichita, Kan., who arrived here yesterday on the White Star liner Cedric.

Bishops Burt and Shepard went to Europe last November with a committee representing the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States for the purpose of making a religious and political survey of Europe and to distribute money collected by the church.

Bishop Shepard said the committee of churchmen was received by President Ebert of Germany, President Seitz of Austria and Prime Minister Huzar of Hungary, and that all officials concerned aided the visitors to obtain information necessary to the committee's report.

"Continuation of the Hoover relief system and similar organizations and the giving of credit for raw materials are the immediate details in helping Europe," Bishop Shepard asserted.

MUST FILE INCOME RETURNS MARCH 15

No Extension of Time Will Be Granted This Year

ENFORCE PENALTIES

The Local Revenue Office Will be Open Each Day From 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. Till March 15.

The attention of firms, partnerships corporations and individuals is called to the fact that no extension of time will be granted them this year to file their income tax returns. They are required, regardless of the size of the firm, or the small amount of business done by them, to file an income return by March 15th. Every partnership in existence, whether it is two men engaged in the grocery business, running a barber shop, pressing club, garage or a mammoth wholesale house must file a return for the business and also their individual returns.

Everybody who had an income during 1919 must determine whether his or her net income was sufficient in amount to require an Income Tax return. The best way to find out is to get a Form 1040-A and follow the instructions printed on it. That will serve as a reminder of every item of income; and if a return is due, it tells how to prepare and file it.

One of the important points to keep in mind is that a person's net income is found by a computation prescribed in the law, and that each item of income from every source must be considered, unless specifically exempted.

Another thing to remember is that the personal exemption allowed taxpayers by law has no relation whatever to be requirement to file return. This exemption is not to be considered until a person had figured out his net income and determined whether it was sufficient to require him to file a return. Then, if a return must be filed, he should read carefully the instructions for claiming exemption, and complete his return.

The penalties will be enforced from March 15th. Failure on your part to receive the necessary blanks will not be considered as a reasonable excuse for not enforcing the penalties. If in doubt as to which form you should file, or any point as to income or deductions, write R. C. L. Moncure, Collector of Internal Revenue, Richmond Va.., or possibly your bank or trust company will furnish the information.

The Revenue Office on the second floor of the post office building will remain open til 9 p. m. everyday until March 15th. Don't wait till the grand rush begins. File your return early.

FIVE FIRES IN NEW YORK

New York, March 1.—Three persons are dead, seevral were injured, many seriously, and hundreds were rescued in five fires that raged during the near zero weather yesterday.

Two of the dead are firemen, who were enveloped in blazing oil when a tank car exploded. The third victim is Mrs. Jennie Rosenberg, 80 years old, who was burned to a crisp in her apartment, 6 Hester street.

Another fireman is dying and several firemen and policemen are in hospitals in serious condition from burns and other injuries received in rescuing hundreds of trapped tenants.

DEATH NOTICE

WINSTON—On Saturday, February 28, 1920, at his home, 634 F Street Southwest, Washington, D. C., Ulysses G. Winston, age 56 years. Funeral Tuesday, 11 a. m., from his late residence. 52-1c

"NOTICEABLY BETTER"

Washington, March 1.—Dr. Francis X. Dercum, a specialist of Philadelphia, paid one of his occasional visits to the White House Saturday. He told Rear Admiral Grayson, President Wilson's personal physician, that the President's condition showed a noticeable improvement since his last visit, two weeks ago.

NOW COMPTROLLER OF SOUTHERN ROAD

E. H. Kemper of This City Will Have Offices in Washington

OTHER APPOINTMENTS

President Fairfax Harrison Makes Announcement of Changes Effective Today.

Fairfax Harrison, president of the Southern Railway System, announces the changes effective today with the return of the railroads to private ownership.

Edward H. Kemper of this city is named as comptroller with offices in Washington, D. C.

Mr. Kemper also will be comptroller of the Mobile and Ohio R. R. Co., which is the Southern Railway Company in Mississippi. Other Alexandrians promoted in connection with the return of the railroads include the following: W. H. Luckett, assistant auditor and F. D. Pollard, auditor of disbursements, Georgia Southern and Florida Company, a branch of the Southern with offices in Washington.

W. F. H. Finke, of this city, has been appointed by Vice President W. H. Miller tie and timber agent with offices in Washington.

President Harrison in connection with the return of the railroads has issued the following statement:

"The United States Railroad Administration having ceased to operate the lines of these companies, it becomes my duty to resume direct responsibility in the premises. In doing so I send hearty greetings of affectionate friendship and good will to all of you. It is needless to say that I expect to renew with you that measure of alert service to the public and individual success which distinguished our operations prior to Federal control. At the moment I have but one message for you. Remember that you are again at home, that you are working "on your own," as part of an organization in which loyalty, initiative and results are recognised. Remember also and most of all that now once more "The Southern Serves the South."

REFUSES $1,000,000

Washington, March 1.—The House refused unanimously yesterday to appropriate one million dollars for use until July 1 in attempting to prevent the smuggling of liquor over the Canadian and Mexican borders. Provisions for the appropriation had been inserted in the general deficiency bill by the Senate.

Chairman Good of the Appropriations Committee said the expenditure would be "useless."

TO FIGHT DRY LAW

Washington, D. C., March 1.—Spurred on by what they believe is a reaction against prohibition in various parts of the country, the liquor interests and the States desiring to remain wet today are ready for a concerted legal attack in the Supreme Court against every important part of the Eighteenth Amendment and the Volstead law enforcing it.

Every effort will be made to expedite the proceedings in order that the main points of contention may be determined before the annual summer recess of the court in June.

The main questions that the wet forces will ask the court to determine are:

Is the eighteenth amendment valid?

Was it legally passed by Congress and ratified by the States?

Does it infringe on State's rights?

Can it be enforced in a State that did not ratify the amendment?

Can the States withdraw their ratifications by referendum as Ohio has done?

U. S. DISTRICT COURT

Adjourned Session of Tribunal in This City Today

The United States District Court, Judge Edmund Waddill, reconvened in Alexandria today according to announcement made last January.

Most of the time consumed today was in the work of procuring a jury to try the case of George and Arthur Welch, charged with having on their premises goods which had been placed in charge of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company, for delivery.

U. S. Ditrict Attorney Hiram E. Smith is conducting the prosecution, and Messrs. Edmund Burke and Carl L. Budwesky appear for the defense.

COMMITTEE TO MEET

A special meeting of the finance committee of the Alexandria's first big style show has been called for the Chamber of Commerce rooms at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The committee will at that time take up the plan of subscriptions to cover the cost of advertising the big affair and committees will probably be named to carry out the subscription plan and decided upon tomorrow afternoon.

The members of the committee are urged to attend this session at 4 p. m., tomorrow. The members of the committee are C. M. Horgan chairman; R. Weil, A. Katz, W. H. Thomas, and H. W. Wildt.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

Ulysses G. Winston, 56 years old, a former resident of this city, died Saturday at his residence, 634 F street, Southwest, Washington. The deceased was president and general manager of the Clarke-Winston Co., contractors. His wife and two daughters survive him.

Funeral services will be held at 11 o'clock Tuesday at his late residence and interment will be in Glenwood cemetery, Washington.

Funeral services for John M. Guy, who died in Washington Friday, were held at 10:30 o'clock this morning at the residence of his mother, 1010 New Hampshire avenue, Washington, and conducted by Rev. Dr. E. V. Regester, pastor of the M. E. Church South, this city. Burial was in the Methodist Protestant cemetery, this city.

The body of Archie Englebert who died Saturday morning at the Base hospital, Camp Humphreys Va., as the result of injuries sustained on an automobile accident Friday night, was shipped this morning by Demaine and Son, undertakers, to Cumberland, Wis., for burial.

Miss Eliza S. Chinn, a graduate trained nurse, whose home was in Rockville, Md., died shortly before 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Alexandria Hospital following a short illness of pneumonia. The deceased had frequently nursed in this city. The body was shipped by B. Wheatley, undertaker, to Rockville Md., for burial.

Mrs. John H. Fisher, mother of Mrs. Thomas A. Fisher, of this city, died at 11 o'clock yesterday morning at Newberg, N. Y. Mrs. Fisher was with her mother when the end came. The deceased had reached an advanced age.

Mayor Fisher, husband of Mrs. Thomas A. Fisher, was notified of his mother-in-law's death yesterday and left this afternoon for Brooklyn to attend the funeral, as the burial will be in Brooklyn, N. Y.

"DIET OF ASHES"

"Money getting, pleasure getting, fame getting and fad enjoying" were named by the Rev. Earle Wilfley, pastor of Vermont Avenue Christian Church, Washington, as constituting "A Diet of Ashes" in an address yesterday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A., 1736 G street northwest.

The only indictment brought by Dr. Wilfley against the first three of these "dishes" was that they are, in themselves, insufficient. But he roundly scored the last. "There is great interest in semi-religious activities. All sorts of "isms" are being brought forward and people are running after them. The world is filled with long haired men and short haired women who are always seeking something new," he declared.

Dr. Wilfley stated that the man whose only interest in his fellow men is in what he can get out of them is feeding on ashes." He emphasized the necessity of a strict observance of the golden rule if one was to partake of the "higher and better life."

RETURN OF THE ROADS

The turning back of the railroads to their nominal owners is the most striking symptom so far of the transition from war to peace says a cotemporary. "When the roads were taken over in December, 1917, it was the general belief that government operation would be prolonged indefinitely. Many people, deceived by the experience of European countries, looked for so much greater efficiency and economy of operation under government control that the demand for government ownership would become irresistible.

The showing of the last two years has shattered this illusion. The government itself has long been eager to get rid of the burden of operating the roads. In spite of the perfunctory arguments marshaled by Director General Hines, the country is convinced that government operation has been a complete failure."

"YES" OR "NO" WHICH DO YOU SAY?

Folks With Thin, Pale Blood Hesitate —Feel Uncertain

SHOULD TAKE PEPTO-MANGAN

Red-Blooded Men and Women Know What They Want To Do And Do It

If may be you are just recovering from a sick spell—or may be your system is run down and your blood so weak that you are in a poor shape to resist infection—

But if you don't feel and look robust you are not robust. Such state is often due to weak blood, not enough red blood cells, a condition known as anemia.

The best remedy for anemia (bloodlessness) with its low mental and physical vigor is Gude's Pepto-Mangan.

Pepto-Mangan supplies the weak, watery blood with the very elements it needs to put new life into it. It repairs, recreates, and rebuilds the exhausted blood, the vital fluid of health and life. Try Pepto-Mangan if you are "rundown". It cannot harm you—it will certainly help you unless you have some deep-seated chronic disease requiring the physician's care. Be sure the name "Gude's" is on the package. Without "Gude's" it is not Pepto-Mangan. For sale at all druggists.

WORK IS TRAMMELED

Official Washington, "a combination of political caucus, drawing room and civil service bureau," containing "statesmen who are politicians and politicians who are not statesmen," is poorly organized for its task which "fewer men of larger capacity would do better."

Such is an epitome of the views of Franklin K. Lane, retiring Secretary of the Interior, expressed in a characteristic parting report to the President on the occasion of leaving public life today after more than 20 years' service—the last seven in the Cabinet.

"Washington," said the retiring Secretary, "is rich in brains and character. It is honest beyond any commercial standard. It wishes to do everything that will promote the public good. But it is poorly organized for the task that belongs to it. Fewer men of larger capacity would do the task better. Ability is not lacking, but it is pressed to the point of paralysis because of an infinitude of details and an unwillingess on the part of the great body of public servants to take responsibility.

"Everyone seems to be afraid of everyone. The self protective sense is developed abnormally, the creative sense atrophies. Trust, confidence, enthusiasm—these simple virtues of all great business—are the ones most lacking in Government organization. We have so many checks and brakes upon our work that our progress does not keep pace with the nation's requirements.

ATTACK ON DRY LAW

'We've Just Begun to Fight," Representative Caldwell Tells Big Audience in Baltimore

Baltimore, March 1.—What was perhaps the biggest and most representative antiprohibition gathering ever held in this city packed the Lyric yesterday afternoon and heard with cheers declarations of speakers "serving notice on the Antisaloon League that we are just beginning to fight."

To the regret of the audience Governor Edward I. Edwards, of New Jersey, was unable to fulfill his engagement to speak. His place was taken, however, by Representative Charles P. Caldwell, of New York, to whom the meeting was indebted for its above keynote, and by A. S. Goldsborough. Other speakers were George D. Iverson, Jr. member of the Maryland House of Delegates, who presided, and Daniel Sullivan, a lawyer, who introduced Delegate Iverson.

The gathering was representative of no particular organizations, but answered to the call of Delegate Iverson, who is sponsor of proposed wet legislation in the Legislature. The size and character of the audience was a surprise even to its sponsors. The conservative wet element was well represented and there was a sprinkling of women in the galleries. Several members of the Legislature and of the City Council were on the stage.

ARABIANS TO QUIT CILICIA

Turkish Attacks on French Also Reported Banned

Paris, March 1.—The general situation in Cilicia is improving, according to advices received yesterday by the Temps, which states that Prince Feisal, son of the King of the Hedjaz, has ordered the Arabian element which had joined the Turkish nationalists, to withdraw. The Temps also learns that Mustapha Kemai Pasha, Turkish Nationalist leader, has issued an order against further attacks on French troops.

The French command, according to other advices, has concentrated important forces in the Killis region, which divides the aera inhabited by Turkish speaking people from Syria.

An official statement today declares dispatches indicating a considerable French loss in the vicinity of Marash to be exaggerated. The total casualties were little more than 100, the statement says, and of these only a few were killed.

LEAVES FOR SOUTH

Cardinal Gibbons Will Visit His Brother in New Orleans

Baltimore, March 1.—Cardinal Gibbons left yesterday for his annual visit to the home of his brother, John T. Gibbons, a grain merchant of New Orleans. He was accompanied by the Very Rev. Geo. Dougherty, vice rector of the Catholic University, at Washington. The two prelates left on the 4:30 p. m., train for Washington. They expect to remain two weeks.

The Cardinal said, just before he left, that he was feeling well, and had almost recovered from a slight cold that bothered him last week. He expects to rid himself entirely of it in the balmy Southern atmosphere.

BUTCHER 5000 REFUGEES

Eighty-five Armenian Girls Under American Care Are Massacred

Washington, March 1.—The most brutal of all Turkish atrocities—the massacre of from 5,000 to 10,000 Armenians and the murder of eighty five Armenian girls, who were under the direct protection of an American mission house at Marash in Cilicia Turkey—was reported yesterday to the State Department.

The massacre took place after fearful fighting between French and Turkish forces. The French were compelled to withdraw and the Turks descended on the unprotected city and began their butchery. Americans in the American College at Marat were fired upon when they offered to mediate between the Turks and the French. They were told it was a national an not a local affair.

It is believed here that all Americans are out of danger, and the are understood to have left Maras with the French forces.

STICKS TO TUBS

Widow Inheriting $2,000,000 Unruffle by News From Sweden

Chester, Pa., March 1.—Summoned from the washtub in the kitchen of her five-room home by the postman's knock yesterday, Mrs. Jennie Hendrickson, a widow, received a letter verifying a report from Sweden that she had fallen heir to one-third of the estate valued $6,000,000. The letter was from an attorney, of Wilmington, Del., stating that a firm of lawyers in Sweden had in hand the business of settling up the affairs of Mrs. Hendrickson's father; that the estate was estimated to be worth $6,000,000 and that Mrs. Hendrickson and her two sisters, all of whom live in this country, were the sole beneficiaries.

Mrs. Henrickson was not at all perturbed, "I am not going to neglect my work," declared Mrs. Hendrickson, who for the last fifteen years has been a washerwoman. "I have not heard from my parents for a number of years. I learned that my father had prospered in business and was becoming well fixed. But why should bother them. I came to this country of my own volition, when quite young I married, raised a family and have gotten along all right, even though I have had to work hard. I have been happy here, had a good husband who always provided for me the best he could."

Mrs. Hendrickson emigrated to this country 30 years ago an dnever returned to her native land.

BOY IN HANDCUFFS

Lancaster, La., March 1.—In order to secure his attendance at school, ten year-old Raymond Isett, a pupil in the Clay street building, this city, is handcuffed to his desk.

The lad was recently committed by the court to the home for juvenile offenders established by the local Rotary Club. From this home he is sent to school. No punishment server to correct his truancy and, with the consent of the Home authorities, he is now linked to his desk during the school period.

The boy was found guilty of stealing $400 from a butcher's stall in the Central Market.

ROADS GO BACK

Transfer of 240,000 Miles of Steel Highways Causes No Interruption

At 12:01 o'clock this morning the railroads of the United States, with over $1,300,000,000 of the government's money invested in them, went back to their original 2,000 managers without any formality whatever, concluding the biggest experiment in government operation and control ever attempted. The President signed the bill Saturday night.

The roads are valued at between $15,000,000,000 and $20,000,000,000 and cover 240,000 miles. The government has paid in rentals $940,000,000 a year and still faces a deficit of $715,000,000.

During the twenty-six months of government operation the railroads have been kept in excellent condition with the exception that the normal amount of new equipment and rolling stock has not been purchased, but Director General Hines declared that war conditions prevented this.

EXPANSION SOON TO END

Financial Authorities Urge Conservative Credit Policies

Washington, March 1.—Early ending of the general expansion, which has characterized war and immediate post war periods were forecast in a statement summarizing February business conditions issued last night by the Federal Reserve Board. The upward movement of prices, so far as the board could ascertain, generally has not met with any check.

Financial and banking authorities everywhere were asserted to be looking more seriously at the general situation in credit and beginning to urge the adoption of conservative policies. While the review asserted that this could not be accepted as meaning that the "orgy of speculation" had been absolutely checked there was said to be the indisputable evidence that banks were exercising a "greater degree of discrimination and judgment in complying with the demands of their customers."

AMERICAN KILLED

Warsaw, March 1.—An American named Harris is reported to have been killed during the recent military revolution at Kovno, Lithuania. Harris joined the Lithuanian Army a few months ago as instructor.

The outbreak at Koyno continues and martial law has been proclaimed. Civilians are not permitted on the streets after 8 p. m.

London, March 1.—A wireless dispatch from Warsaw under date of Saturday says that the recent revolt of Lithuanian troops at Kovno occurred February 22, when several units who had agitated for deferred pay were ordered to assemble and confer with Government representatives. The men refused to obey the orders on the advice of Bolshevik agitators and directed machine gun fire against the Government building throughout the day and night, the dispatch says. At the same time artillery bombarded the railway station and various parts of the town.

The dispatch does not give the number of casualties, but says that in semi-official circles in Lithuania it is believed the revolt was the result of bad relations between the officers and men. It is expected, the dispatch states that the insubordination will extend and new outbreaks are anticipated.

A dispatch from Warsaw, dated February 26, and received by way of London, stated that the revolt occurred February 21. Advices received the day previous said the revolt was quickly suppressed and normal conditions restored.

TIPS ARE HELD TAXABLE

Must Be Accounted For in Figuring Income Returns

Baltimore, March 1.—With only 15 days left in which to file income tax returns for the first quarter, Deputy Collector of Internar Revenue Lewis M. Milbourne is wondering whether taxpayers are remembering to consider extra income outside of their regular salaries and incomes in figuring income taxes.

Various groups are recognized as receiving gratituties now and ther that help swell their incomes. For instance, a preacher received a fixed salary, but in addition to this he is usually furnished a rectory that has a rental value; he is handed a fee, sometimes large, for tying a nuptial knot; he often gets maybe a fee for a funeral service and sometimes a monetary remembrance for a christening. All of these are to be added to the preacher's salary when he figures his income tax returns.

Bona-fide gifts, however, are not taxable under the income tax laws There is a clear distinction to be made between a fee and a gift. The annual Christmas offering to the pastor, which is a custom in many parishes, is purely and simply a gift. But the Easter collection for his benefit is considered to be in the nature of additional compensation for his services to the individuals contributing.

A clergyman may receive an unusually large fee, which might hav the appearance of a gift. But if tha fee was in consideration of the performance of some service, the offering must be considered taxable income.

"Uncle Sam wants to know how much every poker player, race track follower, crap shooter, and every other kind of gambler won last year," said Mr. Milbourne. "He is not interested in how much he lost. The government regards losses as illegal. His winnings even though he may not follow gambling as a vocation, mustbe added to his other income in reaching a taxable basis."

Hotel waiters, porters, bellhops, hat checkers and others who have palms faced to the skies are accountable for their tips. The Government regards a tip not as gratuity, but as compensation for service. The man or woman who takes tips, therefore, must account for them in figuring income tax.

SUSQUEHANNA SETS RECORD

York, Pa., March 1.—The Susquehanna river at Wrightsville has been icebound for 68 days. This is the longest period for a half a century.

On December 23 the stream was frozen over with ice about two inches thick. Since that date it has steadily become heavier and it now ranges in thickness from 16 to 24 inches. Residents along the river fear that a flood will follow the sudden breaking up of the ice.

BISHOPS PROTEST

Send Cable to British Archbishops Urging Justice to Armenia

New York, March 1.—One hundred American Episcopal bishops have sent to the Archbishops of Canterbury and York a cable message protesting against the "proposed retention of the Turks in Constantinople and the spoliation of Armenia."

New York, read in part:

"We are grateful for your leadership in the crusade against the proposed retention of the Turks in Constantinople and the spolintion of Armenia. Any compromise with the Turks will be a condonation of crime and will outrage the conscience of Christendom. We believe that Armenia, land locked and robbed of her fairest portions, cannot achieve real independence or self-support.

"We respectfully, but energetically, protest against the proposed measures and appeal to the people of England to prevent the perpetration of a fresh act of injustice against the martyr, Armenia. The American people have always placed implicit faith in the pledges of Great Britain. We cannot believe that Great Britain will disappoint up by falling to do full justice to Armenia."

LID ON IN HAGERSTOWN

Enforcement of "Blue Laws" Hits Autoists and Smokers

Hagerstown, Md., March 1—The Sunday "blue laws" were observed in Hagerstown yesterday even more generally than on last Sunday, when the lid was clamped on tight following the prosecution of a merchant for selling on Sunday.

Yesterday the garages were not open for the sale of gasoline or automobile accessories and the drug stores sold only drugs. No attempt was made to interfere with the sale of newspapers. Candy, soda water, cigars and cigarettes could not be purchased.

2,000 WILL LOSE RANK

General March Orders Officers Demoted to Regular Status

Washington, March 1.—Drastic reduction of permanent officers of the army from their temporary ranks to regular army grades, effective March 15, has been ordered by General March, chief of staff. Of approximately, 3,000 officers now holding temporary rank higher than their permanent appointments, about 2,000 probably will be returned to their regular status.

Field officers only will be affected. The number of officers holding general rank are now within the allowance and there will be no cut in the grades of those below the rank of major.

FRENCH STRIKE QUIET

Nationalisation Demand Fails to Gain Headway

Paris, March 1.—The strike appears to be making little headway, judging from the reports received last night in Paris. In the provinces the number of strikers has not increased, and on some of the roads it is said they even have decreased. No untoward incidents of any kind have occurred.

A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Leon Middol, secretary of the Paris, Lyons and Mediterranean unions, on a charge of inciting soldiers to disobey orders.

Watch the Little Pimples; They are Nature's Warning

Unsightly and Disfiguring Signals of Bad Blood.

Pimples on the face and other parts of the body are warnings from Nature that your blood is sluggish and impoverished. Sometimes they foretell eczema, boils, blisters, and other skin disorders that burn like flames of fire.

They mean that your blood needs S. S. S. to purify it and cleanse it of these impure accumulations that can cause unlimited trouble. This remedy is the greatest vegetable blood purifier known, and contains no minerals or chemicals to injure the most delicate skin.

Go to your drug store, and get a bottle of S. S. S. today, get rid of those unsightly, disfiguring pimples and other skin irritations. It will cleanse your blood thoroughly. For special medical advice free, address Medical Director, 41 Swift Laboratory Atlanta, Ga.

Troublesome Night Coughs—

Get rid of a troublesome night cough, and a constant dry nervous hacking, very easily and pleasantly by taking Foley's Honey and Tar.

It puts a soothing healing coating on a dry, tickling or inflamed throat, clears the mucus, cuts the phlegm, eases hoarseness and lets you enjoy refreshing restful sleep.

Foley's Honey and Tar is a standard family medicine and is good for everyone from infancy to old age. Recommended for coughs, colds, spasmodic croup, whooping cough, la grippe and bronchial coughs.

"I feel like a new person from using Foley's Honey and Tar. I can sleep all night and cough but little and the soreness in my breast is all gone. My whole family is using it now, both the little ones and the old ones. My wife tells me when the bottle gets low and I have to get another one. It has cured all of our coughs and broke our colds." SOUND BUSINESS BASIS FOR CHURCH

Interchurch World Movement Natural Growth Of Tendency To Eliminate Waste

AVOIDS USELESS COMPETITION

Religious Financiering Revolutionized By Success Of Men And Millions Movement And Co-operation Is Result

The Interchurch World Movement of North America is an attempt by forward-looking leaders of the various evangelical denominations of the United States and Canada to co-ordinate the resources in men, money and material for Protestant America.

Historically it is the logical outgrowth of a tendency of the national boards in each denomination to form working alliances among themselves, in which each board shall preserve its identity and control its own personnel and treasury.

In former times, the home mission society, the foreign mission society, the church extension society and the various philanthropic and eleemosynary agencies of any denomination conducted their affairs independently of one another. Each surveyed its own restricted territory, prepared a budget of money and workers for its own purposes and made its own appeal to its constituency for support.

This could only mean that these agencies were more or less in competition with one another; that there were waste and duplication of work and money, and that among them all some work was neglected and some denominational resources were entirely overlooked. Because of their specialized training, the leaders of each agency regarded themselves as peculiarly fitted for their tasks, and jealously regarded attempts at outside interference.

Decide On Experiment

After decades of such haphazard methods, the leaders of one denomination decided on an experiment. They thought it would be possible for the agencies to get together for a common study of all the opportunities and resources of their brotherhood, to make out a unified budget of men and money, and to conduct a concerted appeal for funds. It was made clear that each constituent board should preserve complete autonomy.

When the board representatives met they found it possible to eliminate a great amount of organization expenses. They ultimately worked out a budget and plan of campaign that was satisfactory to all. This resulted in the famous "Men and Million Movement" of the Disciples of Christ which brought in what was then considered the staggering sum of $1,250,000 for a five-year program. The members of the communion were so pleased with this business-like method of conducting affairs that they contributed even more generously than had been expected.

The success of this enterprise revolutionized the whole business of church financiering. The other great denominations immediately adopted the plan. The denominational associations have come to be known as "forward movements," and some thirty of them are in existence today. Each one has clarified all the information in relation to enterprise within the denomination, and has reduced the business of collecting and spending money to a science.

World-Budget Formed

The Interchurch World Movement is simply a plan to do interdenominationally what the forward movements have done within the various communions. It means that every denominational budget will be made in the light of world needs instead of in the semi-obscurity of incomplete information. It means that contributions to one denomination will not be in wasteful competition with contributions to another, because all the fellowships will have worked out their program together.

The functions of the Interchurch World Movement are threefold. First, it collects, by means of world surveys, all the pertinent facts on which denominational programs may be built. Second, it sets up the practical machinery of co-operation. Third, it acts in an advisory capacity whenever its advice is requested.

The Movement has nothing to do with organic church union or matters of creed or doctrine. Each constituent unit preserves complete autonomy, and is bound only so far as it wishes to be bound. Financial appeals are made by each denomination to its own constituency. Any surplus in undesignated funds, over and above the actual cost of administration, will be prorated among the denominations engaged in a given financial undertaking.

An illustration of one thing the Movement can do is to be found in a western community of 1,600 persons in which thirteen denominations have been supporting separate churches with missionary funds, while an adjacent territory of 50,000 persons has only three churches. By seeing that all missionary boards are supplied with information in such cases, the Movement will make possible a wiser distribution of funds.

Its first goals are to reduce unnecessary duplication and overlapping to a minimum and to bring about an intelligent division of labor in unoccupied fields.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Reports current in Richmond are to the effect that S. R. Bramo, for several years internal revenue collector here, and for the past few months head of will succeed Daniel C. Roper.

Property values in Richmond have increased approximately $25,000,000 since the assessment made in 1915.

According to figures just compiled, the total deposits of the State banks of Richmond city on December 31, 1919, show an increase of more than $5,000,000 over the total deposits of 1918.

Five airplanes of the first aero squadron will "hop off" from Mitchel Field, Mineola, N. Y., tomorrow on an 1,100 mile cross country flight over the South Atlantic States. The itinerary will include Langley Field, Va.; Pinehurst, N. C., and Richmond, Va. The trip will be made for training purposes, and the planes will be equipped with machine guns.

The Mayhew Steel Products, Inc., with main office at 296 Broadway, New York, manufacturers of mechanic hand tools and automobile tool kits, has closed negotiations for a plant site at Hopewell, according to announcement made by the Dupont Chemical Company. The site taken by the company comprises ten acres of ground and on it will be erected a modern structural steel building. The new plant when completed will manufacture exclusively shears and wrenches, and will employ approximately 100 skilled mechanics. Ground for the new building will be broken within a month and it is expected that operations will begin about July 1 next.

During the early hours of Saturday morning Danville lost by fire two of its most prosperous industries, the Westbrook Elevator Co., and the abattoir and refrigerating plant owned and operated by A. Greenberg and Son a short distance beyond the corporate line. The Westbrook fire represents a loss of $75,000, with $40,000 insurance, while that of the Greenberg plant is estimated at $90,000, with $40,000 insurance. The Greenberg fire will be investigated by the police, Harry Greenberg, a member of the firm asking that this be done in the light of events which have taken place during the past few days. Both concerns will rebuild their fire swept plants.

Liberalization of Virginia divorce laws as proposed in two separate bills was rejected Saturday by the Senate by votes of 13 to 15 and 12 to 28. Both bills dealt with restrictions on remarriage after divorce.

DRESSES SHOCK CLERGY

Reform in Attire of Women Is Demanded in Brazil

A Campaign against prevailing modes in feminine attire not only in Rio de Janeiro but also in other large cities of Brazil, has been inaugurated by the Catholic clergy.

One bishop recently advised his clergy to deny communion to those who presented themselves unsuitably attired, while an archbishop had made the exaggeration of fashions the subject of a pastoral letter. Leaflets attacking the present fashions were distributed recently outside the cathedral in this city.

Monsignor Maximiano Leite, the vicar general, declared that without doubt there was an evident excess of nudity in present day feminine garments profoundly dangerous to morals.

WILL DEMAND FORTY-SIX

Paris, March 1.—The war criminals commission has decided to send to Germany the names of forty-six men for trial before the German courts. This, it is announced, will be a test of good faith upon which the allies have agreed.

The list, with a sovereign note of considerable length, has been drawn up and will be submitted to the supreme council. It is expected it will be forwarded to Berlin with in the week.

The British selected the names of seven accused, mostly for submarine atrocities; France selected twelve; Belgium fifteen and Italy, Poland and Roumania four each.

It is probable that the original list will be drastically reduced if the Germans loyally carry out the proposed trials.

An allied representative will attend the court and watch the proceedings. The cases selected will be deemed conclusive if properly presented.

SEES KEEP IN FISH

Attention Turns to Food to be Had For Catching

"Of all the curious quirks of popular interest engendered by the war perhaps the most surprising is the unprecedented interest in fish," says a bulletin of the National Georgraphic Society.

"Yet there are two reasons why the humble and hitherto submerged fish should suddenly command attention," explains the bulletin.

"First, the world is hungry. With starving nations calling for meat and grain, which are not to be had, is it to be wondered at that men should give thought to fish, which are to be had for the catching? Furthermore, the submarine has given men access to the ocean's depths, and henceforth the ocean's content, as well as water routes, will command the interest of mankind."

LABOR MILLION SHORT

Famine in Unskilled Help is Especially Acute

If a fleet of liners should land a million immigrants in the United States this week the labor market would gobble them all up and shout for more. There is no "unemployment problem," because there is no unemployed. Detroit alone could set 10,000 laborers to work tomorrow, and although the demand for skilled workers is less urgent it is lively.

CAN'T BURY DEAD

Prisoners on Deer Island Forced to Dig Graves for Victims

Boston, March 1.—Influenza has caused so many deaths among inmates of the city almshouse and hospital on Long Island that morgue and burial facilities have been exhausted and bodies in coffins are lying on the ground, Dr. Charles E. Donlan, superintendent of the institution, said that out of 100 inmates under treatment forty had died of the disease in the last two weeks.

Prisoners from the house of correction at Deer Island were ordered to go to Long Island to dig graves.

$4,000 A YEAR TOO SMALL

Pastor Will Enter Real Estate Business Because He Does Not Want to End in a Home for Aged Ministers

Though he receives a salary of $4,000 a year, with house rent and lighting free, plus the usual fees that come to the pastor of a fashionable church for performance of various ceremonies the Rev. Dr. Thomas G. Sykes, of Grosse Pointe Protestant Church, Detroit, has resigned to enter the real estate business.

His income, he said Tuesday in announcing his resignation, is not sufficient to provide properly for himself and his family. It is a "living salary," he said, but not one on which he could lay away enough so that he would not have to fear spending his later years in a home for aged ministers.

The statement that he got $4,000 a year, or about $76 per week, was made by a member of the board of trustees.

CAVE MAN TREATMENT

Mrs. Clarice M. Baright, Feminine Lawyer, Takes Issue With Ibanez's Statements

New York, March 1.—Mrs. Clarice Margoles Baright, lawyer and leading Democratic politican, today took sharp issue with the declaration by Vicente Blasco Ibanez, noted Spanish author, that "women are surfeited with male servility toward them and want a little cave man stuff for a change."

"The great novelist does not know what he is talking about," declared Mrs. Baright. "There was never a time when women needed more sympathy from their husbands.

"Women are not seeking to dominate men, but only wish to do their share as women. Women are no longer content to dolls. They want to think and work.

"Our distinguished visitor has mistaken our new confidence and sense of responsibility for aggressiveness I think. He doesn't understand us as yet."

American Women Stirred by Armenian Horrors

"MERCIFUL GOD, it's all true! Nobody has ever told the whole truth! Nobody could!"

Thus Eleanor Franklin Egan, in the Saturday Evening Post, quotes Howard Heinz of Pittsburgh, Herbert Hoover's representative in the Near East, on the real conditions in Armenia as he saw them with his own eyes.

Mr. Heinz had been one of those who had believed the stories of starvation and death in Armenia had been exaggerated. Not until he went himself to the Caucasus did his views change. Then he was shaken to the foundation of his soul by what he saw.

"Fearful! Awful! Horrible! Unbelievable!" are some of the adjectives Mrs. Egan says must be used in speaking of conditions in the Near East, where Near East Relief, 1 Madison Avenue, New York, supported by contributions from the American people, is conducting the only organized effort to save the lives of these utterly destitute millions. Everything she saw and heard justified the necessity for quick and generous aid from America. Her story of what she witnessed re-enforces the call of the Near East Relief for aid for stricken Armenia.

"'The Hunger grin' is everywhere evident," Mrs. Egan writes. "The pitiful hundreds seemed to me to be weeping constantly. Not profoundly as in grief, but whimperingly, appealingly as in unbearable physical distress. A terrible population. Unspeakably filthy and tatterdemalion throngs; shelterless, death stricken throngs milling from place to place children crying aloud, women sobbing in broken inarticulate lamentation men utterly hopeless and reduced to staggering weakness, heedless of the tears rolling down their dirt-streaked faces."

That is her picture of the Armenians most in evidence in Armenia These are the throngs. Then she turns to the mobs. "Large numbers here and there, wide-eyed, eager, hands outstretched in wolfish supplication; teeth bared in a ghastly grin that had long since ceased to smile—an emaciated skin-stretched grin, fixed and uncontrollable."

"Is it any wonder," she asks, "that I could not swallow my food? I threw it to the children in the ravening hordes and started small riots. The children fought together, snarled and clawed at one another for small bits of army biscuit or morsels of bully beef.

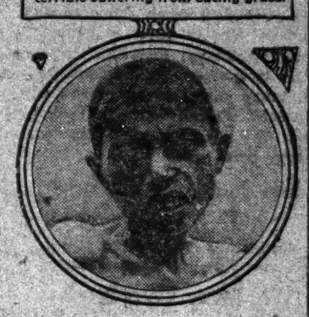
"And then I was told that many of them were so starved that solid food was likely to kill them instantly. This was too terribly true. Yet in the whole length and breadth of the land there was not an ounce of food of the kind necessary for such cases. At Kars I saw one man die with bread in his teeth. And if you will consent to look with me upon a too awful thing I will add that he showed evidence of having eaten too much grass.

"I went hungry in Armenia, and I associate remembered pangs of my own with all my recollections of the terrible land. I had plenty of food with me, but for days on end I could not eat. It was a physical impossibility.

"And I came to a point, too, when to look upon things that had to be looked upon set my heart to quaking in a horror difficult to describe."

Of her first sight in Armenia of the terrible condition of the people Mrs. Egan writes of the scenes on her way to Kars:

Collecting grass to be eaten as food in Armenia. Thousands die after terrible suffering from eating grass.



"The starvation grin," so common in Armenia, as described by Mrs. Egan in her article.

"Everywhere in the fields there were people down on their knees searching for grasses to eat. Those near the railroad lifted their heads and gazed at our train as it rushed past, and I caught glimpses of terrible faces. An old man sitting at the top of an embankment waved a handful of grass at me where I stood at the car window, then threw his head back and laughed a maniacal laugh. I began then to feel the cold chills with which I was to shiver for days on end."

Of Kars she writes:

"It had been raining for days, and wherever one looked one saw nothing but misery and mud. Between the railroad tracks were unsightly pools and puddles, through which many human scare-crows trudged back and forth.

"They were a multiple Lazarus, and the train was the rich man's table They were begging for crumbs. I began to hear for the first time the whining indescribable phrase that sounded to me like 'O-na-ne, O-na-ne.' It was so feebly, so plaintively murmured 'O-na-ne.'"

Mrs. Egan asked what it meant and was told the nearest equivalent was "Oh, my soul!" "But," she says, "it was more than that; it was a prayer for mercy."

Describing a makeshift hospital before the arrival of the Near East Relief workers, Mrs. Egan writes:

"The sick in their unbelievable rags were lying around on the floors—hundles of unimaginable wretchedness The doctor was not doing anything at all for them. What could he do? He had not so much as a single ounce of medicine of any kind. The little people were more pitiable than the adults. The ward, if I may call it that had in it not one stick of furniture of any kind, and the children were all lying on the dusty and rubbish-strewn floor with nothing under them and no covering save the rags they wore."

"It Is Not Very Nice to Starve," Says Little Guest From Armenia

IRANEH ESTHER ARAXIE AZGAPETIAN.

This little Armenian has a name with a "history as long as the tail of a cat," she says. Daughter of a famous soldier, she often cried from hunger. Now she is in America and does not cry any more, she naively adds, but her mother cries, mourning for the thousands of other Armenian babies who are hungry, back in the native land. But little Iraneh smiles wisely, as she knows Near East Relief is aiding the poor people of Armenia.

I AM little Armenian girl. I have three years. My name has a history as long as the tail of a cat. I am called Iraneh Esther Araxie Azgapetian.

Iraneh, because I was born at Kazvin, in Persia, and that is a good Persian name. Near the Red Cross hut where I first opened my eyes was the tomb of Esther and Mordecai, so my father also named me Esther. Then, being a good Armenian, I had to have the name of our beloved river Arax. Therefore I am Araxie.

My father is General Mesrop Nevton, khan Azgapetian. He was with an army in the Caucasus mountains during the Great War. We were living just inside the city wall. I could hear the jackals at night howling, howling all the time. I howled too. My nurse said the jackals set me a bad example. My first nurse was a great big soldier. He belonged to the Russian army, which was encamped near us.

My mother tells me that she paid five roubles a day (that is $2.50 in American money) for half a loaf of bread. The bread was often full of dirt and splinters. One fine day my father found a can of condensed milk in a shop and bought it for $6. That day I had a feast and did not cry at all. Several times my father was able to buy a salt herring, for which he paid $1.50.

I began to get very thin. My mother said she must take me away so that I would not die. We began to go away, but it took a long time. Everywhere there were people going. They mostly had no clothes, and often they would fall down. My mother said they would never get up again. My mother said they did not have the money to buy even the bad bread we had and they could not live without food. We traveled in an ambulance, on horseback, donkeyback and camelback, in a truck, a motor lorry and a cart—in fact, by every way except an airplane.

It was many months before we could come to America. There is much to eat here. I like America. I never cry any more. My mother cries. She says there are thousands of little children starving to death in our country. It is not nice to starve. I did not like it. It makes her sad. But some days she smiles. That is when my mother says she knows American will not let the little Armenian babies suffer or be hurt.

ARAXIE.

AID GOD'S POOR, SAYS MRS. DANIELS

By MRS. JOSEPHUS DANIELS, Wife of the Secretary of the Navy.

THE plight of the people of Armenia presents a tragedy unbelievable. Hundreds of thousands of the descendants of the earliest Christian race are now, because of their religion, undergoing sufferings beyond the imagination of civilized America

During the war it is estimated that 1,000,000 Armenians, a third of the total population, were massacred. No barbarity in human history exceeds the gross cruelty of that destruction Thousands were driven out upon the desert, there to die from hunger and thirst under the pitiless rays of a tropical sun.

Such was the price which the Armenian people paid for their Christianity and their loyalty to the cause of justice and democracy during the world war.

One-quarter of a million children, chiefly orphans, whose parents perished in massacres, are utterly dependent on American charity.

Hundreds of thousands of refugees in the Caucasus, clad only in torn, verminous rags, without shelter and without food, can exist only if America has compassion upon them.

Shall we fail them? Not if I know my country.

Help Near East Relief in its work for God's poor.

MRS. JOSEPHUS DANIELS.

FACING STARVATION

"Iron Blockade" of Fiume Decreed by Italy to Compel Surrender

Fiume, March 1.—A siege of Fiume has begun with a stringent blockade against commodities, including foodstuffs.

"Perhaps we may appear to be lenient toward those occupying Fiume," said General Caviglia, of the government forces, yesterday, "but it is not so. We shall exercise an iron blockade against the forces of Gabriele d'Annunzio.

"I am not offering them the slightest atom, but the children must be cared for. That is why I allowed 200 children to come out of Fiume and proceed to Milan."

The correspondent has gleaned opinions of all sorts in Fiume. Those of the citizens with whom he has talked seemed unanimous that the situation was critical, and that the city now is in deepest of despair financially and commercially.

"We are starving," said a prominent banker who previously had been a strong supporter of Italian annexation. "We are unable to go further We now areready for an international city. We want our port reopened to commerce. We want the city occupied either by an American or a British garrison. The pesent state is impossible."

Some extraordinary effects in out door photography were secured by Joe Augusta who did the camera work for "Shark Monroe," the Artcraft Picture starring William S. Hart, which is now being shown at the Grand Theatre. A number of these scenes show a storm at sea and Mr. Hart and the other actors participating in the scenes, narrowly escaped drowning during the filming. Other scenes showing snow clad Alaska are also marvels of artistic photography. Also 2nd Chapter, "Trail of Octopus."

OFFICERS FOR SOUTHERN

Additional Appointments Announced Must Have Offices Here

Washington, D. C., March 1.—Additional appointments of Southern Railway system officers were announced yesterday. The following were named by Vice President Henry W. Miller.

T. H. Gatlin, chief engineer of construction; C. R. Craig, general purchasing agent; Pierce Horne, superintendent of real estate, and conveyancing; W. F. H. Finke, tie and timber agent; E. B. Berry, superintendent of insurance.

The following were named by General Purchasing Agent Craig; A. Telford, assistant general purchasing agent; L. H. Skinner, purchasing agent; E. E. Hanson, assistant purchasing agent. They will have offices in Washington.

The appointment of J. A. Baumgardner as general freight claim agent, with offices in Washington and Chattanooga, Tenn., was announced by W. H. Gatchell, assistant to the vice president in charge of operation. It was also announced that Guy E. Mauldin, formerly chief clerk in the office of the president, has been elected as assistant secretary, with office in Washington, succeeding the late George R. Anderson.

WANT 6 HOUR DAY

Anthracite Miners Will Demand 60 Per Cent Wage Increase

Philadelphia, March 1.—Demands for a 60 per cent increase in wages for contract miners, $2.00 a day raise for day men, and a six hour day and five day week for men paid by the day or month, will be presented to the anthracite coal operators in New York on March 9 by the union representatives of the hard coal diggers. These demands were formulated at a convention of the anthracite miners in Wilkes Barre last August and ratified by the national convention of the United Mine Workers of America in Cleveland in September.

The conference of operators and agreement covering the anthracite industry was entered into in May, 1916, for four years ending March 31 this year. About 170,000 mine workers will be affected by the new contract to be negotiated.

Whether the mine workers will remain at work, if an agreement is not reached by March 31, will depend largely, it is said, on how strenuously the operators oppose the demands.

WOMAN LEAPS TO DEATH

Throws Herself From Room of Five Story Tenement

New York, March 1.—Mrs. Sadie Shultz, 29 years old, ended her life early Saturday morning by jumping from the roof of a five story tenement house into the stone paved courtyard in the rear of the building.

The woman, according to a statement the police say relatives made, had been suffering from a nervous ailment for some time. Early this morning she went to the apartment of her brother.

"Is there any peace and happiness after death?" she inquired of her brother.

Not associating her inquiry with a determination to take her life, the brother, Herman Lefkowitz, urged Mrs. Shultz to go home. A few minutes after she left the apartment the cry of a neighbor brought him into the rear courtyard, where he found his sister's lifeless body.

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

What's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged and disordered bowels.

Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested foods? Take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief. Eat what you like. 10c and 25c.
